

Can you write these sentences correctly in Latin ?

sum.

benignus	friendly	laetus	happy
fatīgātus	bored	māgnus	big
fessus	tired	parvus	small
īrātus	angry	validus	strong

1.	Augusta is tired.
	Augusta fessa est.
2.	Horatius is small.
3.	Lucia is happy.
4.	Felix is not strong.
5.	Marcella is friendly.
6.	Tullia is not angry.
7.	Aurelia is bored.
8.	Brutus is big.
9.	Severus is not friendly.
10.	Flavius is not tired.

NOTES FOR THE TEACHER

Students write the sentences in Latin, remembering that for the female people (those whose names end in –a) they will need to change the –us ending on the adjective to –a.

For the negative sentences, they will need to add nōn before the adjective.

1.	Augusta is tired. Augusta fessa est.
2.	Horatius is small. Horatius parvus est.
3.	Lucia is happy. Lucia laeta est.
4.	Felix is not strong. Felix nōn validus est.
5.	Marcella is friendly. Marcella benigna est.
6.	Tullia is not angry. Tullia nōn irāta est.
7.	Aurelia is bored. Aurelia fatigāta est.
8.	Brutus is big. Brutus māgnu est.
9.	Severus is not friendly. Severus nōn benignus est.
10.	Flavius is not tired. Flavius nōn fessus est.