- Can you write some French sentences to say where some more of these people live ?

[illegible]

NOTES FOR THE TEACHER:

The first names and the town/city names rhyme, and can therefore be used for phonics practice.

Children may also be able to find groups of sentences that rhyme, and turn them into a poem, song or rap.

For example:

“Marion habite à Dijon,
Manon habite à Lyon,
Camille habite à Chamonix, et
Marie habite à Paris !”
